BROWNLOW.

Outside View of the Saintly Knoxville Parson.

Interesting Sketch of the "Wickedest Man" in America.

[From the New Orleans Picayune, August 20.]

The New York papers have been of late somewhat boastful of a character named Allen, who, having been ferreted out by an enterprising reporter for the press, and the fact of his uncommon career brought to light, has received the title of the "Wickedest man in New York." We accord to the great city unusual advantage in this peculiar line, but while cheerfully admitting Allen's well-earned honors, we believe that we can point out to those interested in such matters, and in rural districts, far away in the mountain region of Tennessee, one who, in the game of wickedness, in its fullest and completest development of thought and action, can beat the New Yorker and give him five points in the game. Should the reader be incredulous, we offer ourselves as his guide in the pursuit of knowledge.

Suppose yourself translated from where you now are to the mountainous region of East Tennessee, and walking eastward from the center of the town along a narrow hilly street in Knoxville, you will soon cross a bridge spanning a brawling stream, and ascending a somewhat precipitous slope, you will perceive an old fashioned frame house on your left; mount two or three steps, knock at the door, and when it shall be thrown open, ask to see the Governor; you will be shown into a chamber, and upon a bed or lounge you will perceive a shriveled human form, spare to almost extreme attenuation, the legs drawn up close to the body, the long bony arms stretched forth to rest upon the knees, and the brown skinny fingers formed into a triangle above them; the entire frame is shaking with palsy; the small eager eyes peering from under heavy brows, and the breath coming with a wheezing, hollow, asthmatic sound up through the throat. This form is that of William G. Brownlow, the present autocrat of Tennessee, and according to our firm belief, the wickedest man on the continent of America; and, as we also think, a man without a peer in depravity, even in the worst departments of the French bagnes at Brest or Toulon, or the convict settlements, for the worst criminals in the English establishment at Norfolk Island.

Chancing to pass a few weeks at Knoxville during the late war, we sought to obtain some authentic details as to the career of this anomalous person. Our information was mostly furnished by former political associates of the man; and as none of it seemed tinged with any bitterness or hostility toward him, it was doubtless fairly given. He began life in Southwestern Virginia, where, before he had fully attained to manhood, he filched money from his employers, the proprietors of some iron works. He next appeared as a Methodist preacher, and soon acquired great influence in that character among the rud, illiterate, half savage population of that region and the adjoining districts in Upper East Tennessee, by his vehement, forcible style of speaking. In the course of time he got control of a printing press, and made his first essays in journalism. The period was propitious for one of his mental organization in this new field; for it was about the beginning of an era of intensely bitter partisanship, introducing into political discussions personal insults and denunciations, which for so long and weary a period discredited the politicians of Tennessee. Brownlow was a writer of some vigor of style, and his particular forte was personal detraction of his opponents. In this sphere he made himself useful to his party friends, and became a favorite orator in their ranks.

Of wit and humor, no scintillation ever sparkled in his columns. Vanity made Brownlow soon fancy himself a man of national renown, and he aspired to pass the bounds of his mountain home and seek other fields of fame. His particular aversion at that time seems to have been abolitionism, and he courted one or two public debates on that subject with its Northern advocates, in which he shone conspicuous as an advocate of the strictest sect for negro slavery; and for his sharp, caustic, vituperative denunciation of all who opposed that system. This devotion to slavery lasted until the war broke out in 1861. Of those who had known him best, by political association and sympathy, not a few believed that his first wish was to espouse the secession side, and that had he been promptly paid twenty or twenty-five thousand dollars (for he loves money) he would undoubtedly have done so. He went over, however, to the loyal side; was imprisoned for his violent diatribes against the Confederates, and released and sent into the Federal lines by orders from the Richmond Government, much to the indignation and regret of its prominent adherents at Knoxville, who knew him thoroughly and appreciated his unprincipled character. He made himself a lion amongst the credulous and excited Northern masses; going from place to place and delivering lectures founded on his alleged personal grievances and sufferings, and spiced with what some of his own partisan and fellow-prisoners afterward denounced as falsehoods, for his own glorification.

In this way he filled his pockets with money and gratified his inordinate self-sufficiency. In the early part of the year 1865, a "loyal" political convention, meeting at Nashville, was spontaneously changed to a body claiming authority to frame a constitution for Tennessee. This work was soon accomplished, and, as he asserts, adopted by the people of the State. Under this Constitution Brownlow managed to be made Governor of Tennessee, which position he still retains. After the surrender of the Confederate forces in 1865, and when the first evidences of an intention to give the negroes of the South the right of voting manifested themselves at the North, Brownlow opposed it in his usual bitter style; but as time rolled by, and he began to see that without this element of strength he was uncertain in his hold on power, he made no difficulty in turning round, and has since been as great an advocate of that system as he was before its enemy. Under his direction the shameful disfranchisement measure was enacted, by which nearly every respectable white man and tax payer was deprived of his rightful franchise, and has since been taxed mercilessly to support a regime of tyranny and oppression, as yet unknown elsewhere.

Brownlow carries things his own way sickness and suffering cannot suppress the cruel and brutish instincts of his nature; the immediate prospect of death does not seem to fright him from his fiendish designs against those whom he appears to have devoted to wrong, spoliation, outrage and even extermination, as he has loudly and repeatedly declared, if they continue their opposition to his usurped government. The great majority of the so-called Legislature are his willing and unscrupulous tools in all his schemes for self-aggrandizement and political supremacy. No instinct of humanity, no consideration of justice, or policy, ever deter them from doing his work. His present scheme is to provoke armed collision with the oppressed and naturally impatient disfranchised party, so that under the pretense of maintaining order he may turn loose upon them the armed militia which he has asked for, and which will be granted him. This force will be composed of the very worst materials to be found in East Tennessee, and the hordes of thieves and vagabonds of all colors collected about the towns. Once in the field, it will perform deeds of rapine, lust and bloodshed which will be equalled, if at all, only by those of the Free Companions in the twelfth century in France and Italy.

Some people believe that Brownlow, from having so long indulged his mind in dwelling upon his political mania, has become insane. This excuse for hellish cruelties and wanton acts of despotism has been offered for Caligula by some historians. We are not of this opinion; we believe that he is innately brutal, savage, hypocritical, vindictive and perversely wicked. If mad, there's method in his madness. He gloats with a devilish delight upon the scenes to be enacted under his policy. He has no sympathy with the good and true, but clings lovingly to the bad and the false.

From his chamber he sends forth his heartless edicts of ruin to all who stand in opposition to his schemes of power. He prays hypocritically at one moment, and in the next coughs up imprecations, threatenings and vengeance against the best people in the State. He is said to have the congenial mark of a snake upon his body; and it may well be, that like Holmes' unfortunate heroine, Elsie Venner, he came into the world with his human tainted by a mixture of the serpent nature. He certainly looks like a snake, with his livid, leaden hued cheeks, and his small piercing eyes. This fact, if true, may account for his malignant, devilish conduct. For deliberate, fiendish, unrelenting wickedness, we think that future historians will pronounce him first among his peers; before whom the New York man will shrink into comparative innocence. He boasts of having organized hell in Tennessee, and if so, no one ought to dispute his claims to the first place in his newly established earthly pandemonium.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Noon Dispatches.

NEW YORK, August 25.—The Herald's special from White Sulphur Springs, Va., of the 24th, says that the meeting of Gen. Rosecrans with the ex-Confederate Generals and statesmen here, assumes importance from the frequent meetings that have been held here yesterday and today. Gen. Rosecrans and Alex. H. Stephens were in consultation during the early part of yesterday evening, and by this evening it is expected the programme agreed on will be developed. All parties here, both Southerners and Northerners, are sanguine of the best results from the meeting.

Mrs. Jordan was discharged from custody yesterday. She was under arrest on the charge of killing one Nicholson, who had murderously assaulted her and her husband.

BALTIMORE, August 25.—The prize-fight took place on Traver's Island, Northumberland county, Va. The men made their appearance in the ring at seven minutes past ten o'clock, and after some delay in choosing a referee and ringkeeper, time was called for the first round. Neither of the men were in a condition to fight, both being under their proper weight, Collyer going into the ring at 123 pounds, and Edwards at 131 pounds. The fight was stoutly and stubbornly contested, and on both sides the betting was about even, the friends of each man urging his claims most vociferously. The fight lasted one hour and fourteen minutes. In the forty-seventh round, Edwards struck Collier a blow on the jugular, which knocked him out of time, rendering him senseless for over fifteen minutes. Both parties show signs of severe punishment, although Edwards walked the beach unsupported and would allow none to assist him on board the steamer.

TENNESSEE.

—The remains of Col. Thos. Beaumont and Capt. George Williams, of the 50th Tennessee regiment, both of whom fell at Chickamauga, were reinterred at Clarksville yesterday.

—Corn in the Shelbyville market is bringing 55 to 60c; wheat 85 to 95c; rye 90c to $1; oats 50c. Bacon, shoulders 15 to 15½c; hams 16c; sides 17c.

—The preparations being made for the October races over the Nashville Course foreshadow the largest and most interesting meeting of the kind which has occurred there for many years.

—John W. Aiken, an old and prominent citizen of Nashville, is dead.

—An aged woman named Alvina Profit, fell and broke her neck in Nashville on Sunday night. Her son was blown up on a steamboat some years ago. His death caused her to become insane, which condition she has remained in ever since.

—The Clarksville Chronicle says: Upon pretty thorough inquiry we are convinced that the tobacco crop is at present very promising. It is not as large a crop as the planters originally designed it to be, but it promises to be of good quality, and will be worth more if well handled, than if doubled in amount. Corn is very fine on an average, and the yield will much exceed the local wants of the community.

ALABAMA.

—The Mobile Register says: "We learn from Captain Frank Stone, of the steamer Prairie State, that the worms have got to work in the cotton, and in some sections of the State the crop has been totally destroyed. The planters are in consequence very gloomy, and anticipate a very short yield.

—Grant stock is below par in Alabama. W. B. Jones, Esq., declines to run as elector for Grant and Colfax in the Fourth Congressional district.

—The Hon. Thos. Masterson, representative from Lawrence county, has abandoned Grant and declared his intention to support Seymour and Blair.

—The following card is published in the Radical organ at Montgomery: "In consequence of the want of patronage sufficient to meet the expenses of the office, I am compelled to suspend the publication of the State Sentinel. Since the establishment of the paper in this city, going on two years, I have sustained the publication of the paper from my own private means; this I cannot do any longer. I must abandon the business and go into some pursuit that will at least furnish sufficient income to meet the outlay.

Vera Atque Honesta Dicere.

A LIE WHICH IT IS TIME TO EXPLODE.

We find republished, for the hundredth time, in the Washington (Arkansas) Telegraph, of August 12th, an account of a trial of a suit for slander, in Clarksville, Texas, in which Chester Ashley and Albert Pike of Arkansas, and Sergeant S. Prentiss of New Orleans, appeared on one side, and John Taylor, "The Volunteer Counsel" on the other.

We have been asked, at least a hundred times, if the account was true; and have answered, as we say now, once for all, No! it is a lie from beginning to end. We never were in Clarksville, Texas, until the third year of the late war. We never were in any case with S. S. Prentiss. We never appeared in any case in Texas. We never appeared in any such suit, and no such encounter of intellect ever happened to us anywhere, as the tale in question recounts. We knew John Taylor well enough, in Arkansas, and were opposed to him in many cases, but never in any such case. The whole story is a lie out and out, written by Alfred W. Arrington, who died not many months ago in Chicago, to which city he went, after living many years in Arkansas and Texas. George Hopkins and Mary Elliston were myths.

WAIT AND SEE.

Some gentlemen, and among the rest Col. J. M. Harrell, of Little Rock, are laying up for themselves "wrath against the day of wrath." We shall be at liberty to speak, by and by. It is but a little more than two months to the day of election in November, after which no pledge of honor to party will any longer seal up our mouth. Wait and see!

It was Mr. Jefferson, we believe, who wished that a sea of fire separated America from Europe, that American Republicanism might not be corrupted by European examples, nor the precedents of despotism become authority on this side the Atlantic. Squeamish gentlemen of weak stomachs have had their say in respect to one expression in the Centre Hill Address of the Editor of this Journal; and now that we have waited patiently to hear them all, we wish from each an answer to this question: "If Radicalism is to continue to rule the North, if all the 'isms of a corrupted and putrid Puritanism are to legislate for the South in Congress, and the South is to be the bastard brother of the North, sitting below the salt and eating the bread of degradation, do you or do you not wish for Southern Independence; and do you not wish that, if Butler, Sumner, Wilson, Chandler, Boutwell, Bingham and the residue of Beelzebub's imps, with Joe Brown and Orr and others of their kidney from the South are to rule the Republic—do you not wish that, to keep out of the South the idolatrous abominations, political and social of the Northern States, there were a line between us and them, which the devilish emissaries of mischief and malevolence could not cross? Or, are you so much in love with shame and dishonor, as to wish, out of your intense love for a Union that you only lately detested, and a flag that only a little while ago you said was the symbol of oppression, that the South should be forever tied, limb to limb and bosom to bosom, to the North, as the living and the dead were tied together by Mezentius?

O, speak with bated breath, and crook the pregnant hinges of the knee before your conquerors, who never conquered you in verity, until now! Swear oaths that you do not mean to keep, and advise a whole people to commit rank and damnable perjury! It will be profitable. There is no God; or if there is, He has forgotten how to punish crime. Down on your knees, and with the edge of the scimetar on your neck, swear an oath, to keep or break which is equally shameful and dishonoring to one who remembers that his ancestors were freemen.

"All good is Heaven, and all ill is Hell:"—
"The vintage of a hundred years
Would never slake the memory of shame,
Nor quench the thirst of folly,"

after such an oath.

It seems to be the ambition of many political leaders to be damned, by advising people oppressed by calamity to take the ways that lead directly downward to the hell of dishonor. We do not wonder that they point the people to the present profit that they are to reap as the fruit of crime.

Colonel J. M. Harrell, who seems to have said a good many things without much consideration, is reported to have told the people that "the proposition to take the oath is a living policy, which will work ultimately to the meeting of any emergency." He said: "Taking the oath will be no such acquiescence as will cement us to this government. The Democratic party will enable us to throw them off just as well. Montgomery Blair told the speaker that by taking the oath in Maryland the entire Union vote of the State had been transferred solid to the Democracy, who now hold every office in the State. Let us not longer stand on dead issues. The man who is ever building his coffin must endure death many times before he tastes it."

No sophistry can disguise the fact that for one to swear that he will never attempt to deprive any negro of the right to vote, with the settled intention to change the Constitution of the State as soon as possible, so that this oath shall be no longer required, and to elect legislators who will deprive the negro of the right of suffrage, is to swear with the purpose of perjury determined on. No such oath was taken, because no such was required, in Maryland. It is not standing on dead issues, to advise the people not to do a shameful act, which will be hardly done ere it will be repented of in sackcloth and ashes. The man who advises the people to such a course will indeed "build his coffin," and find death a relief from the ignominy that will overwhelm all such counsellors.

"I will be a swift witness against false swearers, saith the Lord of Hosts."

"They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the field."

"It is men who are deceivers—not the Devil.
"The first and worst of all frauds is to cheat
"One's self. All sin is easy after that."

If the people of Arkansas permit themselves to be led into the great sin and shame to which they are tempted, they will cheat themselves, and afterwards find that no permanent profit or advantage can be reaped by a people from an act for which its own conscience will in vain labor to find a sufficient excuse. That which is right and just and true is alone profitable in the end to men or nations.

THE DOOM OF RADICALISM.

The truth being diametrically opposed to your ends, it behoved you, to use the language of the prophet, 'to put your confidence in lies.' You have said, 'The scourges which afflict mankind shall not come nigh unto us; for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves.' But what says the prophet in reply to such? 'Forasmuch,' says he, 'as ye have put your trust in calumny and tumult, this iniquity and your ruin shall be like that of a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant. And he shall break it as the breaking of the potter's vessel that is shivered in pieces,'—with such violence that 'there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit.'—Pascal, Provincial Letters.

This American Republic lacks twenty years of attaining the age of a single century, and already its decline has come and it stands shuddering on the verge of dissolution. Its constitution was the issue of a selfish compromise between the planters who wished for more negro slaves, and the Puritans who demanded the monopoly of the carrying trade, and were willing to endanger the salvation of their souls by continuing the profitable business of bringing negroes in their ships from Africa, to sell to the planters of Virginia, the Carolinas and Georgia.

During the horrors of the Middle Passage, the Puritans in the cabin and on deck sang hymns and psalms, and exhorted each other to uphold the banner of godliness and righteousness; while between decks shrieked and howled the miserable African captives, whose grandchildren Puritanism was, in eighty years, to impose upon the same Southern States as masters of the men of the Anglo-Saxon race, and invite to sit with themselves in the Parliament of the Republic.

In the cabin, the prayers and exhortations of Puritanism,—of the Puritanism that grubbed out the ears of Quakers and then hung them; that banished Roger Williams to the Providence Plantations; that sold its Indian captives into slavery in the West Indies. Between decks a poisoned atmosphere, human creatures cramped by long confinement in one posture, with knees drawn up to their chins and shackled arms, the howls of rage and despair, the inarticulate curses of an intolerable agony, rising up to the throne of God, and demanding vengeance on men heartless as the hyena, faithless as the wolf, and hypocritical as the sneaking panther.

Of this spirit of Puritanism, a spirit hated and despised by all among the fallen angels who still in the darkness of their degradation retain some traces of their ancient splendour and glory when they stood as imperial Archangels round the throne of God, the statutes that create military despotisms and demand test-oaths, have been born;—born of that accursed lust of controlling opinions, and that spirit of greed and gain which demand possession of government as the means of gratifying self-righteousness and accumulating wealth, and to these unite a rancorous hatred of the States whose great men ruled the Republic during the sixty years of the seventy that preceded the civil war.

The Neo-Puritanism of the present day is even worse than the blasphemous hypocrisy of those who murdered the Peqods and Narragansetts, sold Indian girls as slaves, hung Quakers, and choked women to death as witches. Stevens has gone to his last account, and the brazen gates of Hades have opened with clangorous exultation to welcome him and do him honor; and the remaining representatives and Chiefs of New England Puritanism are such men as Butler and Boutwell. It has no Cromwells, Iretons and Fairfaxes now, in place and office; but the subalterns have become general officers, and Congress a second Rump Parliament, over one House of which Colfax, the personification of mediocrity, smirkingly presides, and over the other Blasphemous Wade.

The South failed in its effort to divide the Union by arms, and when the war ended permanent peace could have been restored, had it not been for the malignity of Puritanism. It seems now to be its mission to make hatred eternal, and to patch up an insincere truce, a restoration of the Union of which Force and compulsion and reluctant acquiescence are to constitute the cohesive attraction. Wendell Phillips and Theodore Tilton are two of its Apostles of the Gospel of Hate and Revenge; and from these it learns its creed, the same that it has always obeyed when it has had power to persecute. One measure only will give permanent peace to the country. Consolidate New England into a single State, with only two Senators, and the fangs of the serpent will have been drawn.

OUR NORA.

A committee of the citizens of Memphis tenders a Complimentary Concert to Miss NORA BRADFORD, to take place at the New Memphis Theatre on the evening of the 3d of September.

Our little rossignol has so endeared herself to all who love music and idolize genius and admire wit and worth and all that makes woman lovely, that we need only say that NORA will sing, assisted by the best musical talent, professional and amateur, of our city, to make it sure that there will be no vacant seat in the theatre that night.

The charming generosity with which Miss Bradford has always given the assistance of her delicious voice to every Concert and performance in aid of education or for charitable purposes, entitles her to the gratitude of the people of Memphis; and the committee propose to increase their obligations to her, by the rare musical treat to which they are invited.

Tickets will be for sale, and reserved seats can be secured at F. Katzenbach's, 317 Main street, and at the bookstores and hotels of the city.

—A communication in the Rome Courier thus describes the proceedings at the colored church in that city recently: "At a recent attendance on this abominable mockery of religious service, we heard a whining voice sing out, 'I'm gwine to heben on a white hos,' another jumped up and echoed, 'Bless de Lord, here's a poor sister gwine to hell on a black mule.' One raised her hands, and with eyes fixed on the ceiling, screamed, 'I see Jesus, I see Jesus, I see Jesus a lookin' at me.' Another replied, 'I see him too, a lookin' out de winder at me.' Another cried out, 'Bless de Lord, tell Jesus to send down a rope and I'll climb up to heben.' This last idea struck a dozen or more with force, and they jumped up and down, shouting, 'Send down de rope, and we'll all climb to heben.'"

NEW YORK.

BUFFALO, August 25.—Geo. Clarke, John Ray and Moses Lee, three New York thieves, were arrested here. Gold certificates, for $11,000, that had been stolen from Robt. J. Walker, was found in their possession.

CONNECTICUT.

NORWICH, August 25.—A steamboat train this morning, near Cambridge crossing, collided with a butcher's cart. Driver escaped; horse killed; three passenger cars thrown from the track; no person seriously hurt, but cars considerably damaged.

BOSTON.

BOSTON, August 25.—The Chinese Embassy are visiting the factories at Lawrence to-day.

Preliminary arrangements for the contemplated reunion of the officers of the army of the James in this city are being made. The meeting will take place on the 2d of September.

FOREIGN.

LIVERPOOL, August 25.—Dispatches continue to be received giving accounts of shipwrecks caused by the recent gale. A vessel which arrived at this port, reports having seen the ship Favorita off the coast of Iceland. The Favorita sailed from this port a few days since for New Orleans. She had experienced the gale, and was dismasted and in a sinking condition. The crew, however, stubbornly refused to leave the ship.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, August 25.—Executive order was issued to-day, extending the laws of the United States over the territory lately ceded by Russia to the United States. The port of Sitka is constituted a port of entry of Alaska. The importation of fire arms, ammunition and liquors within said territory is forbidden, except in limited quantities from the United States and Pacific ports, to be delivered at Sitka to the Collector of Customs.

VIRGINIA.

GREENBRIER WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, August 25.—Gen. Rosecrans came down here of his own earnest desire to see the representative men of the South, and to ascertain their views and sentiments of public affairs and security. He has had a cordial reception, has had frequent interviews with Gens. Lee and Beauregard, A. H. Stephens, Govs. Pickens and Letcher, and others, on public matters, and the utmost cordiality and frankness was reciprocated on all sides. Some plans will doubtless be adopted for future action. It is somewhat shrouded in mystery at present, but will probably be developed in a day or two.

Gens. Lee and Beauregard visited Hot Springs yesterday and returned the same day.

Gen. Rosecrans will return to Washington to-morrow.

NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE, August 25.—In the House of Representatives to-day, Bosson, from Special Committee on Finance reported a bill creating a Board of Finance, with full power to pay the principal and interest on the public debt now due and hereafter to mature, by negotiating loans or funding the debt falling due in 1868.

The Committee on Military affairs reported a bill and recommended its passage. This bill authorizes the Governor to organize, equip and call into active service a volunteer force of one or more regiments from each Congressional district, to be composed of loyal men, to be governed by the revised rules and regulations of the United States Army, the expense of the same to be paid out of the State Treasury, in sums not exceeding $50,000 at any one time. The Governor is authorized to declare martial law in any county, and to quarter troops in such counties, the expenses to be paid by a tax upon the people of said county. This bill is on its third reading.

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, August 25.—General Buchanan yesterday relinquished charge of the Freedmen's Bureau affairs in this State to Gen. Hatch.

The canvass of the country parishes has actively begun.

Gen. Steadman and a number of other Democratic speakers from New Orleans addressed a meeting at Lafourche parish Saturday, and were followed next day by a Republican meeting addressed by Michael Hohn.

Nothing further is heard of the bill placing the electoral appointments in the hands of the Legislature.

The active canvassing of the State has been commenced by the Radicals, which seems to indicate that the project will not be pushed, unless as a dernier resort. Gov. Warmouth and Congressman Sypher are speech-making at Baton Rouge.

A grand procession of all the Democratic clubs in the city takes place on Saturday night next. Some idea of the number of the clubs may be obtained from the fact that there are not bands of music enough in the city and vicinity. Mobile is laid under contribution to furnish bands—possibly Memphis and Louisville also.

The following resolutions were introduced in the Legislature to-day:

WHEREAS, It is currently reported and generally believed, that Gov. Warmouth has received compensation for signing bills, and for withholding signatures from the same; and that he has also received pay for making appointments to high and important official positions in the State Government, and

Whereas, members of the Legislature are charged with having received money to secure their votes for the passage of certain bills designed for the benefit of individuals, therefore, be it

Resolved, That a committee of three, on the part of the Senate, be appointed to investigate these charges and report to the Senate, with a view to an impeachment of the Governor, and expulsion of the guilty members.

The resolution was tabled by a vote of sixteen to eight.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, August 25.—Seventeen diseased cattle found their way to the city. Five were traced to a butcher on Stanton street, where they had been cut up and sold to the inhabitants of the Thirteenth ward. One died before he could be slaughtered. The butcher has not been arrested. The others have not been traced, but it is supposed that they were slaughtered and sold to citizens as good beef.

Patrick Morissey yesterday afternoon stabbed his mother while in Yorkville police court, where she had just entered complaint against him for mortally stabbing his sister. Morrissey was arrested. His sister will die.

Henry King and Jacob Meyer fell overboard during the fight of roughs on the steamboat going to the prize fight, yesterday, and were drowned.

Sheriff O'Brien, in a letter to Justice Shanly, defends the action of his deputies at the Broadway Theater, and expresses his willingness to assume all the responsibility. The Fenian Convention continued in secret session to-day. The annual report of Chief Executive Savage was read, and Col. O'Brien, the permanent President, made an address. The military members of the Brotherhood are also holding a convention, with Gen. Dennis Burke as temporary Chairman.

Last night a murderous assault was made on the actors and actresses who offered resistance to roughs employed as Deputy Sheriffs to arrest Hawkins, an actor, upon an injunction issued by Judge Barnard. Hawkins escaped by jumping over the orchestra and making for the street. As the actors stood in a body the roughs fired two or three volleys into their midst, wounding two actors seriously. The roughs were all committed today to await the result of the injuries of the wounded.

THE GREAT KUKLUX CATCHER.

BEAUMONT IN A NEW ROLE

He Gobbles Up a Drove of Texas Cattle.

ON THE PAYMENT OF FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS HE DISGORGES.

A New Case for the Courts.

Simon Bolivar Beaumont, alias Samuel B. Beaumont, is destined to become the sensationalist of the city of Memphis. We bespeak for him a place as Harlequin to the next horse opera that spreads its canvas on the bluffs. We have always been aware of the fact that Simon is thirsting after fame—but, alas! it is the fame of notoriety, and that of a doubtful character. He has been heard of in connection with such fleeting characters as Pratt, Horton and Stewart, and of such things as diamonds, jewelry and gold obtained by pipe laying, pulling and squealing; but we now introduce him as the great bareback rider of a drove of Texas cattle.

Our readers will recollect that some days since an account was published of the larceny of a drove of Texas cattle from Judge R. M. Scott by one of his drovers, named C. M. Bagg. Judge Scott had Bagg arrested by Beaumont and his detectives in Memphis, and forced him to surrender the stolen cattle, pay over certain funds obtained from the sale of some of the cattle, and also obtained from him an order on a man in Little Rock for a number of beef cattle, left with him by Bagg. The following bill of sale, given by Bagg, discloses how Judge Scott's cattle were disposed of:

MEMPHIS, TENN., August 7, 1868.

I, C. M. Bagg, do hereby bargain and sell to T. R. Kirnan, one hundred and eighteen head of beef cattle, for the sum of thirty dollars per head, the cattle to be delivered in the city of Memphis, and paid for on delivery, in lawful money of the United States; and I furthermore guarantee the title to the said cattle, and will well and truly defend the same against all claimants.

C. M. BAGG.

A SETTLEMENT, SO-CALLED.

Upon the arrest of Bagg, a meeting was had in Beaumont's office and the above bill of sale surrendered to Judge Scott, as well as the order and money mentioned above. It was then and there understood that Bagg should pay all the expenses incidental to his detection and arrest. Judge Scott informed Bagg that he was satisfied as to the cattle, but would leave him in the hands of the officers to answer the felony. He then inquired of Beaumont how much he owed him for the services of his detectives, and was informed by the astute and smiling Chief of Police that "he owed them nothing," "that they were paid by the city." Judge Scott left the office of the polite Commissioner of Police with a firm conviction that the smiling Beaumont was the incarnation of morality and justice. It is evident the Judge had not been taking the Memphis papers, or he would have understood the above in a Pickwickian sense.

THE SCENE CHANGES.

The next day our Texas friend was astonished to learn that a telegram had been sent to Little Rock by Bagg, countermanding the order to turn over the cattle at that point, and astonishment lead to amazement when he learned further, that the thief, Bagg, had been turned loose by Simon Bolivar Beaumont. Hastening to the Metropolitan police office, he found that his information, like the Metropolitan game, Keno, "was correct."

BEAUMONT PLAYS A TRUMP CARD.

Simon Bolivar, alias Samuel B. Beaumont, when sitting on his throne in the Metropolitan Police office, comes very near being a great man. Fouche, the famous French Minister of Police, was somewhat of an autocrat, but he sinks into utter insignificance when compared to our Memphis "grey-eyed man of destiny." Beaumont receives our friend Judge Scott in a manner beautifully and scientifically blending the suaviter in modo with the fortiter in re. He looks to perfection the famous words, "I am the State!" With a wave of the hand he coolly informed the Judge that five hundred dollars is due him for professional services and expenses, and that unless the money appears, the cattle in the city, numbering one hundred and twenty-six head, would not be turned over to him, but retained for the payment of the little bill calling for five hundred dollars.

BEAUMONT WINS THE GAME.

We can imagine the feeling of a man who falls among thieves, and can very well understand how he can be induced to spread out his available assets and say, "Gentlemen, help yourselves;" so can we understand how Simon Bolivar, the Dictator, obtained the following bit of paper:

MEMPHIS, August 10, 1868.

I hereby agree to pay to S. B. Beaumont, S. C. M. P., the sum of five hundred dollars, in full payment for expenses incurred by him in securing the recovery of a drove of beef cattle fraudulently obtained from me by one C. M. Bagg, of Pine Bluff, Ark., payment to be made from the first sales of said cattle; and this shall act as a lien upon said cattle until the amount is paid.

R. W. SCOTT.

Attest: F. HASTINGS.

Upon making the above formidable instrument, duly attested by detective Hastings, Judge Scott obtains possession of his drove of cattle, and fearing that some other secret trap door would introduce another personage upon the stage, disposes of his cattle to M. J. Wicks, Esq., for a valuable consideration. Beaumont gets the acceptance of Mr. Wicks for the five hundred dollars payable in sixty days, and returns the lien above set forth to Judge Scott, with the indorsement upon its back: "S. B. Beaumont, S. C. M. P."

ALL IS NOT GOLD THAT GLITTERS.

We should like to hear the opinion of some æsthetic philosopher on the above transaction. He would no doubt regard it as a happy illustration of the science which treats of the beautiful in nature and art. We should also wish to have the deductions of one skilled in the science that treats of the character of men, discoverable from their autographs—the aid of such a detective, for instance, as Charles Read portrays in his late novel, "Foul Play,"—we should then arrive at the full meaning of the inscription—"S. B. Beaumont, S. C. M. P."

The great question with Judge Scott, at present, seems to be the one propounded by Bulwer, "What will he do with it." Many friends advise him to rest upon his sad experience, pay the five hundred dollars, and recollect hereafter, that history repeats itself. But we understand the Judge intends commencing a prosecution against Simon Bolivar, the magician, for obtaining money under false pretences, and also filing a bill in Chancery to restrain Beaumont from collecting the acceptance and M. J. Wicks, Esq., from paying the same. Beaumont's late chancery experience may inspire him with the hope that in that court there is no relief, but he should recollect that there is a difference in equity between a good and a bad cause. As for the five hundred dollars he may, with his co-Commissioners for a chorus, warble, "Thou art so near and yet so far."

SHOOTING AFFRAY BETWEEN NEGROES.

On Monday evening late, a negro man, giving his name as Albert Early, came into 'Squire Griffith's office, in company with Constable Caldwell, and said that he wanted to "give himself up," for having killed, a few hours before, about two miles from town, a negro man, whose name he did not know, but who was a servant of Dr. McLean. He did not give any particulars but handed the 'Squire an old rusty single-barreled pistol, with which he claimed to have done the shooting. It had evidently lately been discharged, but did not look like it could kill anything.

The 'Squire committed him to jail, supposing that further developments would be made during the next day. The day passed off, and up to a late hour 'Squire Griffith had heard nothing further in the matter.

We learn, however, from other sources, that the following is probably the true statement of the affair: During the day on Sunday Early and the man whom he shot, but as it seems did not kill, had an altercation about a cow, which resulted in blows, and eventually in a cutting affray. They were separated at the time, without having hurt each other seriously. On Monday evening about 5 o'clock they again met and renewed the quarrel, and during the struggle which ensued, Early shot his antagonist, as stated, with an old single-barreled pistol—not a double-barreled gun, as one account has it, nor with a revolver, as stated by another. The case will, in all probability, be inquired into to-day, by which time the nature and result of the wounded man's injuries will probably be known.

Card of Thanks.

At a meeting of the Board of the Directors of the United Hebrew Relief Association, held on the 24th of August, it was resolved that a vote of thanks be tendered to Professors Wheat and Farmer for their kind services in voluntarily tendering the Society the benefit of a concert given at the New Memphis Theater on the 18th inst. Also, that our thanks are due to the Concordia Gesangverein, Mrs. Keating, and all the other amateurs who participated in the concert, as well as to the generous public who so liberally patronized the same to the benefit of the poor.

SOL. HESSE, Chairman.
S. KREMER, Treasurer.

THE AGRICULTURAL AND MECHANICAL SOCIETY.

Meeting Yesterday at the Chamber of Commerce Rooms.

Shelby County to Have a Fair.

The Day Fixed and Active Preparations Already Entered Upon.

About twenty persons assembled at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday pursuant to the call issued in the papers of yesterday morning.

In the absence (on account of illness) of the President, the meeting was called to order by Geo. C. Holmes, Esq., the only one of the Vice-Presidents present.

The Secretary, S. D. Greer, Esq., read the minutes of the last regular meeting.

The chair stated that the present meeting was an adjournment from a meeting held at White Station last Saturday, at which but few persons were present, and nothing was done. The object of the present meeting is to discuss the propriety of holding and making arrangements for an agricultural fair this fall.

'Squire Goodlett said that in view of the existing state of affairs—politics running so high and the lateness of the season—he did not think a fair a feasible undertaking.

Mr. Brooks said that this was a matter properly appertaining to the duties of the Executive Committee, and suggested a report from them, before proceeding with any discussion of the subject.

Mr. Hayes, of the Executive Committee, said the Chairman of that Committee had never called the members together, and that was the reason why they had not already taken some action in the matter. He thought that owing to the lateness of the season, and, as 'Squire Goodlett says, to the excitement in politics, and to the ignorance among the people of the existence of any such move, an agricultural fair was impracticable. It would take some time to inform the people of the movement, and he was afraid it would not be a success. Some gentleman had suggested to him the propriety of having a sort of horticultural fair, where flowers, vegetables, garden implements and ladies' fancy work could be exhibited. There could be no live stock exhibited, but a hall might be obtained and such a fair gotten up, and two or three thousand dollars made to start on.

Capt. R. G. Mathews advocated an agricultural fair, and said he had understood that the Central Park had been offered by its proprietors free of cost. He argued that it was necessary to have a fair to show the Northern people who and what we were.

'Squire Goodlett said he did not wish to be understood as opposing holding of a fair, but making a failure at it, if held.

M. D. L. Stewart, Esq., one of the Executive Committee, spoke earnestly in favor of holding a fair, offering a resolution to that effect.

The Hon. John W. Leftwich thought the very arguments which were urged as objections or impediments to holding a fair, were arguments for holding one. We are excited now—have our blood up, and would go in with a vim. We could not have better crops, and the people are grateful for them. We ought to have a fair by all means. Before the war our fairs were a source of pleasure and profit to us. Now, we could not only make them more pleasant, but more profitable. We should go into such an affair with enlarged ideas. The one staple idea has been exploded, and we know now that there is a vast mine of wealth in our soil and country, which we can and must develop. We have so many natural advantages which we will learn to make use of. We have the advantage of St. Louis, for instance, by several weeks, not only in perishable vegetables and fruits, but in our cereals. We sent, this year, the first wheat, by several weeks, to the St. Louis market. It was made into flour and returned to us. Next year we would manufacture our products and send them the first flour of the season. The city flouring mills, in which he, the speaker, was interested, had determined to offer on their own responsibility, several premiums this fall—one for the largest crop, another for the best grain, etc. An occasion of the kind (holding a fair) would make Memphis, for the time, a sort of bazaar, and would bring vast crowds of people hither. He would also advise as many Memphians as possible to go to the fair at St. Louis and Maury county.

Mr. Brooks thought, in order that things should progress properly, Mr. Stewart should make his resolution in form, and it should be seconded.

Mr. John Donovan said he felt very glad to see so much attention given to this project of a fair. He hoped it would be held by all means. The fall meeting of the Racing Association takes place on the 9th of November, and lasts until the 16th. He thinks immediately after that, would be a proper time for holding it. He did not wish to seem to be trying to outdo the liberal offer of the proprietors of the Central Park, but in behalf of the Memphis Racing Association he then and there tendered them the use of the Racing Association grounds free, without any reservation. He added that there were forty stables on the premises, which were also at their disposal, and would be excellent for the housing of such stock as might be brought for exhibition.

Mr. Stewart then moved that the Agricultural Society hold a fair this fall.

The motion was seconded and carried unanimously.

Dr. Keller moved that it come off after the fall meeting of the Racing Association, which would be the 16th of November.

Mr. Stewart thought that would be too late, as it would then be too cold.

Mr. Hayes said, as it has been determined to hold the fair, he would move that it be held at the Memphis Racing Association Course, to commence on the 20th day of October, and continue three days.

This was seconded and carried.

Dr. Keller moved that the thanks of the Society be tendered to the Memphis Racing Association for their liberal offer.

This was amended so as to include the proprietors of the Central Park, and was passed.

Sometime was spent in arguing a proposition of Mr. Donovan's, that the Chair appoint a committee of five to prepare a programme. The motion was finally made and carried to refer the programme to the Executive Committee, who are empowered to act in the matter.

On motion, Mr. Donovan was added to the Executive Committee.

Dr. Leftwich moved that a committee of three be appointed by the Chair to confer with the various railroad companies, in regard to transporting visitors from Memphis to the St. Louis Fair, and from the country to our fair, when it is given. The motion was carried and the Chair appointed Messrs. Leftwich, Donovan and Stewart as the committee.

Mr. Stewart moved that the Chair appoint a committee of ten to confer with the citizens of the town and country, and solicit membership and subscriptions to aid in getting up the fair.

After some discussion on the propriety of creating life memberships, and offering inducements to subscribers, Mr. Stewart's motion was put and carried unanimously.

Dr. Leftwich suggested that the society be converted into a joint stock company, in imitation of the St. Louis Association, whose stock was very valuable, commanding a high premium.

The following list having been preprepared, was then submitted to the Chair to form the committee made by Mr. Stewart's motion, viz: Messrs. Jno. Donovan, K. J. B. L. Winn, John P. Trezevant, A. J. Hays, R. M. Mason, E. W. Caldwell, John Hardin, E. S. Elam, Eli Rayner, and J. M. Shelby.

Mr. Hays moved, as there were several gentlemen present who were agricultural men and not members of the society, they be invited to join.

The invitation was accordingly extended and several gentlemen availed themselves of the opportunity.

Dr. Peterson, of Arkansas, thought that while the duty of the establishment of a scale of premiums and a programme devolved on the Executive Committee, there should be some expression of the meeting as to the size, quality and quantity of said premiums.

Dr. Leftwich said that the matter had been left to the Executive Committee, and they would no doubt make a report at an early day.

'Squire Goodlett thought that it should be given as the sense of the Association in view of the paucity of its funds, the premiums offered should be small, comparatively.

Dr. Leftwich thought that was a very good idea, and that premiums should be offered for things that had hitherto been looked upon as trifles.

Nothing was done, however, in the premises, and the subject was dropped.

At the request of Mr. Mathews, Mr. Donoho, who was present, proceeded to address the meeting on the subject of immigration, which is chronic in all meetings in the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

There being no further business before the meeting, on motion it adjourned.

Correspondence.

MEMPHIS, August 24, 1868.

MISS NORA BRADFORD: In behalf of a great number of the citizens of Memphis, we, as a committee of those who feel under very great obligations to you for the generosity and loving kindness that have so often prompted you to aid with your voice the cause of education and of charity, wish to learn of you whether it will be agreeable to you to accept a complimentary concert, tendered by hundreds to whom you are very dear. If it should suit you, we will arrange for the concert to take place at the New Memphis Theatre on the evening of the third of September next.

Albert Pike, L. V. Dixon,
J. R. Chalmers, G. P. Foute,
M. Mageveney, Jr., H. M. Lowenstein,
John Donovan, J. J. Powers,
J. W. Leftwich, J. W. Page, Jr.,
M. C. Gallaway, A. E. Frankland,
Thos. H. Allen, John S. Toof,
Young Halsey, B. Newton Hart.

MEMPHIS, August 25, 1868.

Gentlemen: I am very grateful to you for the kind words in which you express your desire to pay me a compliment far above my deserts. Of course I accept, with many thanks, the favor you propose to do me, and will endeavor to make the concert as acceptable to my friends as possible, which the kindness of those who have offered to assist me encourages me to hope I shall be able to do. I am, gentlemen,

Very respectfully and thankfully yours,
NORA BRADFORD.

Messrs. Albert Pike, L. V. Dixon, J. R. Chambers and others, Committee.

THE BENEFIT FRIDAY NIGHT.—We announced in our issue of yesterday that arrangements had been made for a grand complimentary benefit on Friday night, tendered by the amateurs of our city to the Central Democratic Club. The following is the correspondence which passed between the gentlemen, which needs no comment at our hands. As there seems to be some misapprehension, however, as to the manner in which the funds thus obtained are to be applied, we are requested to state that they are not for the Treasury of the Central Democratic Club, but are to be applied solely to the purpose of paying the necessary traveling expenses of such speakers and emissaries, white and colored, as may be sent out by the club for the good of the Democratic party and the success of the cause.

CORRESPONDENCE.

MEMPHIS, August 25, 1868.

Messrs. Passmore, Scruggs and Chalmers, Committee Central Democratic Club:

Gents: I take great pleasure in informing you that I, together with well known amateurs of this city, have perfected arrangements for a complimentary benefit to the Central Democratic Club, to take place at the New Memphis Theater on Friday evening next, and respectfully solicit your co-operation.

Yours, truly, LOU LEWBRIE.

MEMPHIS, August 25, 1868.

Lou Lewbrie, Esq.:

Dear Sir: Your note of this date, tendering to the Central Democratic Club a benefit at the New Memphis Theater on Friday evening next by the amateurs of this city, has been received. Permit me, on the part of the Committee, to return our thanks for this manifestation in behalf of the Democracy, and will take great pleasure in co-operating with you.

W. H. PASSMORE,
For the Committee.

CORRECTION.—In our issue of yesterday we published the following clipping from the Bristol News of a late date:

Chief Justice Smith, of the Tennessee Supreme Bench, and a Congressman, whose name is not given, supped with a negro woman in that place last Wednesday, rather than stop with white people at the hotels of the town. De gustibus non disputandum.

It caught the eye of Maj. Waddell, who sends us the following, which we cheerfully publish:

Editors Memphis Appeal:

I was with Judge Smith at the Bristol Depot, when we both got a cup of coffee from the "Old Aunty" who keeps a coffee table near the platform. I do not know why I should have been taken for a Congressman. I had no carpet-bag, but a regular trunk, the transferring of which from one car to the other occupied a large part of the twenty minutes allotted to change baggage and eat supper. I deem it due to the "Old Aunty" to say she keeps good coffee, and her table is a great convenience for all those who have baggage to transfer. Those who have nothing but a carpet-bag with them, of course, have full time to go to the hotel, which is not more than one hundred yards from the cars.

B. B. WADDELL.

FIFTH WARD DEMOCRATIC CLUB.—The regular weekly meeting, for the dispatch of business, took place last night at their headquarters on Main street. After the usual routine of business, the President introduced the Hon. John W. Leftwich, who made, as usual, a very eloquent address. He was followed by Messrs. Lowenstein and Douglas. Before adjournment the President announced that a cordial invitation had been extended to the Club to participate in the grand procession on next Thursday. The invitation was accepted, and the Club notified to meet at their headquarters Thursday evening for that purpose.

WYTHE DEPOT.

Seymour and Blair Democratic Club.

At a regular meeting of the Club on Saturday, August 22d, A. J. Hays, President, in the chair, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted, viz:

Be it resolved, That the unfeigned thanks of this Club are due and are hereby tendered Capt. K. Garrett, Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements for the barbecue, for the very satisfactory manner in which he discharged the onerous duties of that office.

Be it resolved, That the thanks of this Club are due, and are hereby tendered Gen. Boyd and the very courteous and accommodating officers of the Memphis and Ohio Railroad Company, for their prompt and gratuitous transportation of sundries for the barbecue.

Be it resolved, That the colored voters of this vicinity are cordially invited to meet in this hall on Saturday evening next, the 29th inst., at two o'clock, for the purpose of joining this, or organizing an independent Democratic Club, as may be optionary with them; and that white and colored orators be invited to address them.

Capt. K. Garrett and R. B. Hays, Esq., were appointed to procure speakers for the occasion.

On motion, the Secretary was ordered to request the Memphis papers to publish the above. J. W. CREWS, Secretary.

FORMATION OF AN AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

On Saturday, August 22d, there was a meeting of the citizens of Wythe Depot and vicinity, for the purpose of organizing an agricultural society.

On motion of A. J. Hays, Esq., Col. J. M. Crews was called to the chair, and K. Garrett appointed Secretary.

A. J. Hays, Esq., and Col. Crews having explained the object for which they were called together in short but appropriate speeches, it was moved that the meeting adjourn until Saturday, the 29th of August, to organize permanently.

K. GARRETT, Secretary.

WOLFF ARSON CASE.

Conclusion of the Testimony---Defendant held Over.

The case of Moritz Wolff, charged with arson, concluded Monday, before 'Squire Kiernan. The testimony was summed up, and B. Newt Hart, Esq., opened the case for the State. He was followed by Col. John Bullock, who occupied his own allotted time and that of Major Halsey, his associate, in the defense. Newt Hart closed.

Justice Kiernan remanded the prisoner to jail, and reserved his decision until yesterday. At eleven o'clock the parties all appeared except Col. Bullock, and on his account decision was again postponed until four o'clock yesterday evening. At that time Col. Bullock was again unavoidably absent, and the case was continued until this morning at nine o'clock. We are of the opinion that the defendant will be held over under heavy bonds—under what amount not being yet definitely settled. Six thousand dollars is, however, spoken of as the amount of the bond.

THE COURTS.

MUNICIPAL COURT—Geo. W. Waldran, Judge.—On yesterday in the case of the State vs. Beaumont, leave was given the prosecuting attorney to withdraw his replication to defendant's pleas and file a demurrer to the same. The demurrer was argued by the prosecuting attorney. Col. McRae, attorney for defendant, declined to make any argument. Decision held under advisement until to-day. The cases set for trial to-day are as follows:

1768 The State vs Beaumont.
1119 Same vs H. McDonough.
1601 Same P. S. Simons.
1644 to 1653 Same vs D. Cunningham.
1747 to 1750 Same vs H. Wetherbee.
1768 Same vs George Nelson.
1774 to 1776 Same vs P. S. Simons.
1777 Same vs John Cosgrove.
1891 Same vs H. Wetherbee.
1894 Same vs Joseph Wader.
1895 Same vs A. Cordovia.
1900 Same vs H. Wetherbee.
2145 Same vs H. Hoxley.

All witnesses who have been subpœned in any of the above cases will be required to be in attendance promptly at ten o'clock a.m. The sci. fa. docket will be called. All parties against whom forfeitures have been taken must appear and show cause why judgments final should not be rendered against them, or such judgments will be so rendered.

BANKRUPTCY COURT—T. J. Latham, Register.—A final discharge in bankruptcy was granted on yesterday to Mr. G. J. Williams.

CRIMINAL COURT—Wm. Hunter, Judge.—On yesterday, in the case of the State vs. Levy McGinnis, indictment for the larceny of a watch, the jury returned a verdict of guilty and fixed the term of imprisonment at three years in the Penitentiary.

A nol. pros. was entered in the case of the State vs. George Washington, indictment for larceny. In the case of the State vs S. F. Moyer, three indictments for larceny, a nol. pros. was entered by the State. The case of the State vs. S. M. Moyer, indictment for larceny, continued by consent. In the case of the State vs. P. F. Sullivan, indictment for assault with intent to commit murder, a continuance by consent was entered. In the case of the State vs. Frank Coburn, indictment for house breaking, indictment quashed and appeal taken by the Attorney General.

The case of the State vs. P. H. Lyones, indictment for calf stealing, was on trial last evening, but not concluded. A verdict will probably be rendered to-day. All parties out on bonds for their appearance at this term of the Court must appear and renew the same on or before Saturday next, or forfeitures will be taken and a capias issue for their rearrest.

FOR SALE.—Several hundred dollars of Commissioners' bonds for sale, of Bolivar, Washington and Issaquena counties of Mississippi, to be sold at a liberal discount. Apply to Duncan McLean, northeast corner of Madison and Main streets. 2t

NOTICE.—A report having by some means obtained circulation, that we would in the future discontinue the sale of cotton on commission, we take this method of pronouncing such report as utterly unfounded, and we fear of malicious origin. Thankful for the very liberal patronage heretofore received from the public, we hope still to merit a continuance of their confidence and patronage. We take pleasure in announcing that we will continue the cotton factorage, grocery and commission business, as heretofore, and will at all times be pleased to see and serve our friends. We are now receiving a large and carefully selected stock of goods, purchased by our Mr. Meacham in the Eastern markets, which we will sell at the lowest market prices. Our Mr. Treadwell will give his entire time and attention to the sale of cotton, and flatters himself that he will be able to give satisfaction to all who may favor us with their patronage. We are, for the present, at No. 13 Union street, but will be in our new and commodious store, at our old stand, No. 9 Union street, by the 10th of September.

NOTICE.—To the Merchants of Memphis—The steamer DES ARC will resume her trips in the White River Trade on Thursday, the 3d day of September, 1868, and as I am satisfied that it is the wish of both the planter and merchant that the local packets receive and transport merchandise on which there is C. In former times it was a practice with the merchants to give five gallons good liquor for the first Bale new Cotton. By way of keeping up something like the old custom, we propose to pay a premium of fifty dollars in silver for the first Bale new Cotton sent us from Tennessee, to weigh not less than 450 pounds.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, MEMPHIS, August 25, 1868.

The coming fall trade is now the absorbing question outside of politics in business circles. Its length, breadth and thickness—everything connected with it is canvassed fully, and of course opinions differ as to the result, meantime business generally is dull, and in money matters especially there is a lull or calm existing which will, we hope, soon be broken by the bustle of activity.

The stock and bond market was quiet to-day, with no sales that we could learn of. City bonds are scarce and held at 51@52c., with no buyers at over 50@50½c; Mississippi Central and Mississippi and Tennessee bonds are in demand at former quotations.

County Warrants are in active demand at 52@53c; selling at 56@57c.

Police Scrip is firm; buying at 75c; selling at 78@80c.

Exchange is in moderate supply and demand; buying at par to ⅛c premium; selling at ¼ to ⅜c premium.

Gold opened in New York at 145⅜, and closed at 144⅛c. We quote at 143c buying; selling at 144@145c.

The New York Stock Board quotations at noon to-day were as follows: Old Tennessee bonds 63; new 62¼; 5-20s of '81 113; '62, 113; '64, 108¼; '65, 110¼; new issues, 107⅞; '67, 106¼; 10-40s, coupons, 108⅛; bonds firm.

Cotton was steady in Liverpool at the opening to-day—uplands 10⅞d; Orleans 11d, and closed firm with prices unchanged. Sales 1,200 bales. The New York market opened quiet but firm. Quotations unchanged. At noon holders were firm at 30½c for middlings—but at the close the demand was moderate, and prices a shade lower—uplands 30@30½c—other grades unchanged. Sales 1,500 bales.

BUCKEYE SALVE

—FOR THE—

CURE OF EVERY FORM

—OF—

HEMORRHOIDS OR PILES

WHETHER OF LONG STANDING OR RECENT origin, internal or external, whether attended with Prolapsus, Hemorrhage or obstruction, and all by

External Application,

No internal adjuvants being required in any case, only to regulate the bowels, if constipated, or in Diarrhea and Dysentery.

The PILES, while astonishingly prevalent in their various forms amongst all classes of both sexes, are, at the same time, the most distressing, frequently dangerous, and hitherto most difficult of cure.

Persons who suffer any length of time with the Piles generally try every thing they can learn of purporting to cure the disease, yet realize no permanent advantage therefrom. They have been told professionally, perhaps, there was "no permanent cure for Piles," and consequently have despaired of any future cessation from pain and suffering.

To all such a SPECIFIC is offered for their relief. The

BUCKEYE SALVE

Is a strictly scientific combination of well known remedial agents, and the proprietors have no hesitation in saying the BUCKEYE SALVE is the

ONLY INFALLIBLE SPECIFIC

Ever discovered for that disease, and which cures by outward application only, and that in time to come, as in the past, it will stand the test of trial without a failure, to perform all the proprietors claim for it, if the directions are attended to.

A large number of gentlemen throughout the country of high character and influence have voluntarily attested to its efficacy in their own cases, not from hearsay, and whose certificates may be seen by reference to the publications.

The proprietors will forward to any address one bottle, postpaid, on receipt of the retail price, $1 00 per bottle.

A Liberal Discount to Druggists and Dealers in Medicine.

This Salve will keep in any climate for years

Our Latest Improved NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep5 d&wly

M. Hopkins, New Orleans, viz: One dated December 27, 1859, at 12 months after date in favor of himself, the said Thomas Bibb, for $2000 00; and one dated December 5, 1859, in favor of Thomas Bibb, at 12 months after date, for $2000 00; and R. C. Brinkley did draw his accommodation bill on A. M. Hopkins, New Orleans, in favor of R. P. Brinkley, dated December 26, 1859, at 12 months after date, for $1967 00; and A. M. Hopkins & Co. did make their note in favor of A. M. Hopkins, dated May 28, 1858, at 10 months after date, for $5434 77, which was held by A. & J. Denniston & Co., on which said A. M. Hopkins did pay the sum of $500 00.

And whereas, in order to secure and save harmless the said John Overton, Thomas Bibb, R. C. Brinkley and A. F. Hopkins, the drawers respectively of the aforesaid accommodation bills, and to secure also the said A. and J. Denniston & Co. on the note aforesaid, the said Arthur M. Hopkins did execute an indenture of Trust, dated the 8th day of February, 1861, by and in which he conveyed to Charles Kortrecht the premises situate in the county of Cook and State of Illinois, known and described as follows: "A certain piece or parcel of land lying and being near the city of Chicago, in the State of Illinois, and consisting of about ten acres, which was conveyed in fee simple by James W. Pryor, of the city of New York, to the said Arthur M. Hopkins, said conveyance being by deed now of record in Cook county, Illinois," which said land is more fully described as blocks three (3) and four (4) of James W. Pryor's subdivision of part of the northeast quarter of section four (4), township thirty-eight (38) north, range fourteen (14) east of the third principal meridian, according to survey and map of the same, said to be deposited for record in the proper office for the recording of surveys and maps in Cook county, Illinois, said subdivision being immediately south of Egan avenue and west of the Chicago and Rock Island Railroad, and said block three (3) and four (4) contain, with the streets bounding on them, ten acres or thereabouts, being the land conveyed to said Arthur M. Hopkins by said James W. Pryor and Katherine M. Pryor, his wife, by their deed dated July 3, 1856, upon Trust; that in case a majority of the beneficiaries in said Indenture of Trust mentioned should direct a sale of said premises, then the said Charles Kortrecht was thereby authorized and instructed to sell said premises, at public auction, in the city of Memphis, State of Tennessee, after giving sixty days notice in one or more of the newspapers published in said city of Memphis, of the time and place of said sale, said sale to be made for cash or credit, as a majority of the beneficiaries in said Indenture of Trust named might direct, and out of the proceeds of said sale to pay said accommodation bills and the note aforesaid, and to pay the remainder, if any, over to said Arthur M. Hopkins, as will appear by reference to said Trust Deed, recorded in the Recorder's office of Cook county, Illinois, in Book 218 of Deeds, page 242.

And whereas, default has been made in the payment of said accommodation bills and note, and application has been made and a sale of said premises, for cash, has been directed by a majority of said beneficiaries in said Indenture of Trust named, for the purpose of carrying out said Trust; now, therefore, public notice is hereby given, that I will, on
